

THE WORLD'S NEWS IN BRIEF

Elgin, Ill.—"Some disreputable women, who marched in the suffrage parade at Washington, were responsible for the disorder."—Dr. Mary Walker, noted suffragist, who is visiting relatives here.

St. Petersburg.—The czar announced today that he would give to charity the $500,000 presented to him by bankers here and in Moscow as a centenary celebration.

London.—A. Delmar, a stage "cow-boy" posing in the "movies" and appearing in Wild West shows, inherited $2,000,000 by the death of his uncle.

Trenton, N. J.—Gen. E. B. Grubb, Supt. of Home for Disabled Soldiers, said he thought the state of New Jersey should serve whisky and lobsters to him and other veterans.

Hartford, Conn.—Dr. F. H. Pelter 'phoned several friends that they would see something unusual if they came to his office. They found him dead of heart failure.

New York.—William F. McCombs said to have flatly declined post as ambassador to France.

Troy, N. Y.—Ex-Governor Frank S. Black is dead.

St. Louis.—Col. Jas. Butler, millionaire philanthropist, claims to have discovered cancer cure.

London.— Sylvia Pankhurst's hunger strike won her freedom from Holloway Prison. Released today.

Salt Lake City.—Smallpox patients threatened revolt when E. Grable, leper, was brought to pest house for treatment.

Union City, Tenn.—Negro lynched in public square.

Newcastle, Ind.—Catherine Winters, 9, disappeared. Believed kidnapped by gypsies.

Champaign, Ill.—University of Illinois men who are to appear as chorus girls in college play must wear long skirts.

Rome.—Vatican physicians fear for Pope Pius' heart.

Albany, N. Y.—Governor Sulzer and District Attorney Whitman will make thorough investigation of Thaw bribe story.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Lottie Voorheis and Raymond B. Hoist drowned when auto ran into swamp.

Pittsburgh.—More than 700 iron-workers in smaller plants went on strike. 3,000 Oliver strikers will distribute food among strikers.

Washington.—Wilson revoked order of Taft, transferring land office at Gregory, S. D., to Carter, town off railway line.

Lincoln, Neb.—Roy Maynard, life term prisoner, prevented from hanging self by prompt action of warden.

Belfast, Me.—Emory Danforth, coal dealer, who has disappeared, accused by three young sons of murdering wife, who was beaten to death.

Salt Lake City.—Mothers' pension law passed by Utah legislature became effective today. Mothers who work for a living will receive $10 per month to support one child and $5 for every other child.

Lincoln, Neb.—Albert Prince, negro, hanged for murder of Deputy Warden Davis.

Cambridge, Mass.—Rumored that Chas. W. Eliot, former Harvard president, may refuse post as ambassador to England.

Augusta, Me.—Bill creating state bureau of public utilities passed by legislature.

St. Paul.—Emanuel Foerster, wealthy land owner, went to jail for 90 days rather than pay wife $10 a week.

London.—King of Montenegro has refused demands of Austria to abandon Scutari.

Paris.—Premier Barthou has submitted personnel of new cabinet to President Poincaré.

Philadelphia.—Dorothy Arnold, who disappeared a few years ago, said to be dying at her parents' home in New York.

Washington.—Army of suffragettes